

MARATHON SOUVENIR

THOSE CONQUERING HEROES

It was blood, sweat and tears; a day of agony and ecstasy; an exercise in discipline and fitness for the Sunday Mail Farmers Union marathon last Sunday.

Some 1458 runners conquered the most demanding and gruelling of foot-races.

The spectacle of Robert de Castella and SA's Lisa Martin running in the Olympic marathons at Los Angeles sparked enthusiasm locally.

Before this year, and since the inception of the SA marathon in 1979, the event was run from Gawler to Adelaide.

This year, despite the new course, which incorporated much of the city, and the cold and windy conditions the marathon returned the fastest average time — 3 hours 35 minutes.

Elite runner co-ordinator, Brian Chapman, said the conditions slowed the better times by up to three minutes, with NSW runner Steve Poulton winning in 2 hours 20 minutes 23 seconds.

"However, the course

By Ashley Mallett

was much faster this time than last year's Gawler-Adelaide run," he said.

"The average time was five minutes faster than in 1983."

Race director, Bruce Abrahams, received a telegram before the race from Australian marathon runner, Lisa Martin (she came a creditable seventh in LA), now living in the U.S.

Mr Abrahams was delighted with the numbers who started — 1840 registered, 1550 started and 1458 finished.

In addition, there were 215 interstate and overseas runners, including entries from New Zealand, Fiji, Bahrain, Malaysia and the U.S.

Englishman John Skewes, based in Bahrain, again showed up

A long run to success

having competed last year, plus the half-marathon in May.

Sportscaster Ken 'KG' Cunningham put action into words with a finish of 3 hours 48 minutes 44 seconds — 12 minutes better than last year.

It was in 1983, straight after the marathon, that KG vowed never again to run a marathon.

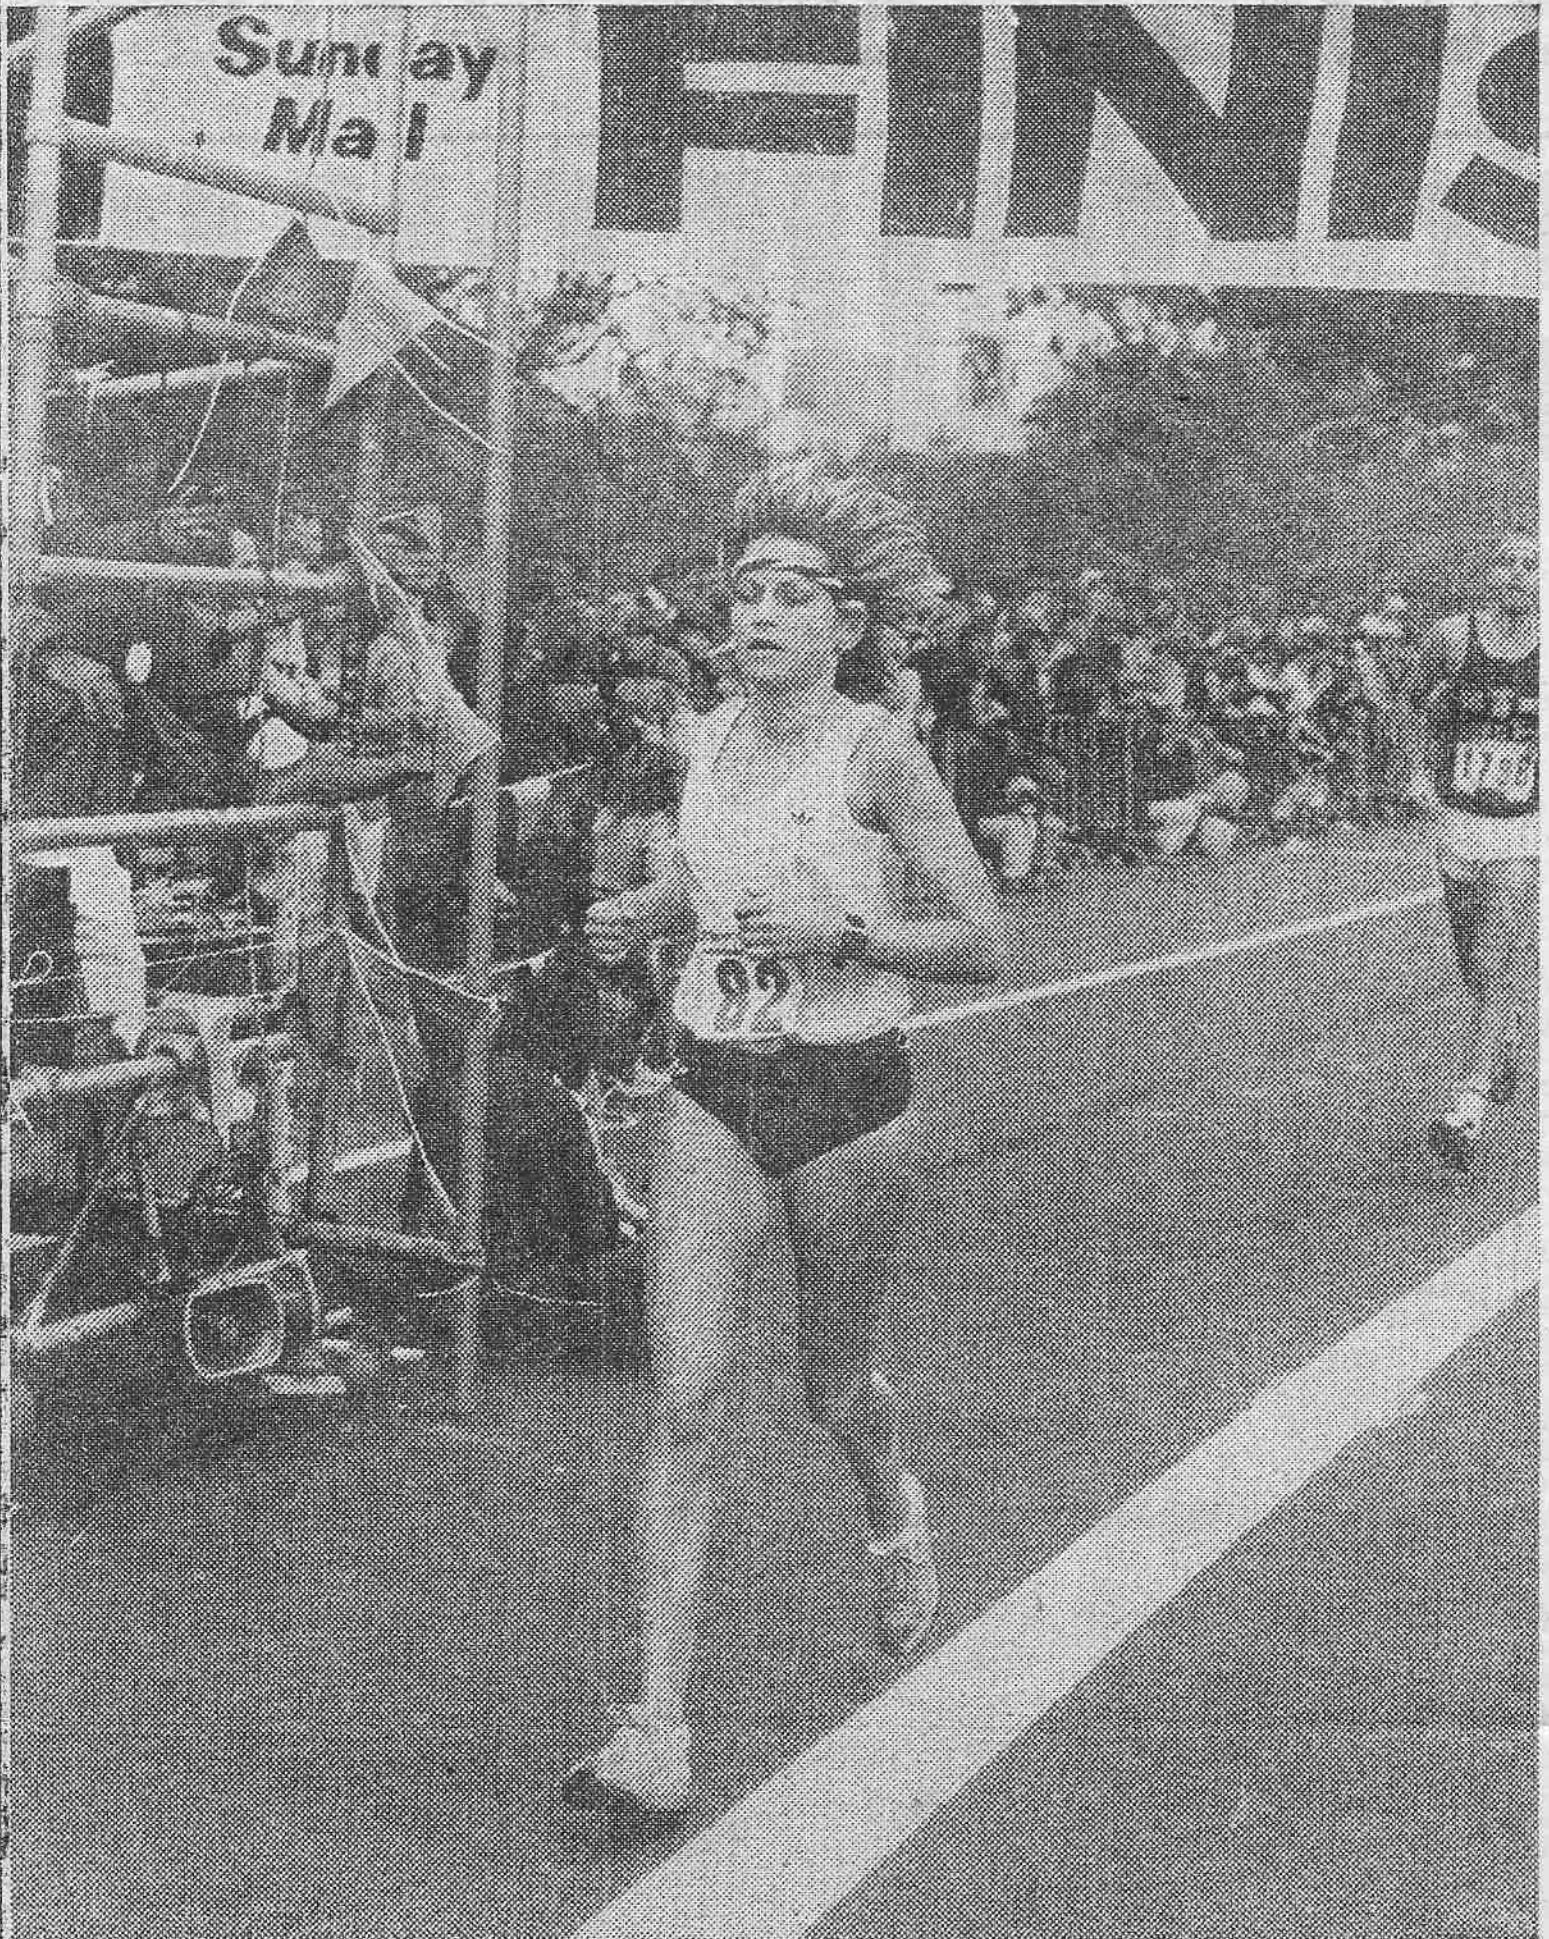

He must have felt like Pheidippides, who carried the message from the battle of Marathon, more years ago than KG has uttered words, to say they had won — then he promptly dropped dead.

Happily KG has survived, as have the thousand-odd other marathon conquerors, some nursing sore limbs, but with the eternal pride of having finished the course.

First home was local wheelchair athlete Robert Turner in 2 hours 20 minutes 1 second.

First woman across the line was Gill Dunning of New Zealand in 2 hours 46 minutes 27 seconds.

Oldest runner to finish was Con Skehan, 71, of Freeling who came home in 3 hours 57 minutes, one minute below his best time, albeit a grand effort.

Mr Abrahams said the organisers regretted some people were inconvenienced due to road closures, despite having informed the public through the media, letter drops, personal contact and milk carton advertising.

"We have spoken with church representatives, businesses and residents affected on the day and have had a generally favourable response," he said.

Next year the organisers hope some of the world's great marathon runners will compete in the event.

Premier Bannon has started the ball rolling. He will invite Robert de Castella and Lisa Martin (Australia), Carlos Lopes (Portugal) and Toshiko Seko (Japan) to the 1988 marathon.

See yourself on video

RUNNERS in last Sunday's marathon will be able to buy a video cassette of the event — including footage of themselves crossing the finish line.

The personalised videos, produced by local company Filmhouse, will sell for $39.

Four crews were assigned to the course, two of them filming from open vehicles travelling with the runners.

"We knew the only way to really capture the feeling of being there was to go with the runners, film them and talk to them as they ran — and it paid off. We've got some great footage," said Mike Piper, one of Filmhouse's directors.

Tim Sullivan responsible for a documentary on the Tour de France made last year was given the task of selecting shots from the hours of original footage, to be edited into the final product.

Further details can be obtained from Bronte Turner on 275 9911.

Grandad shows true grit

WITH true grit Con Skehan, 71, completed the marathon after having dislocated his right shoulder six weeks before the event.

Con of Freeling, came home in 3 hours 57 minutes, just one minute shy of the time he recorded in the Adelaide-Gawler Marathon in 1982.

He made light of his injured shoulder.

"I wore a sling. My rhythm wasn't affected. There was little pain, in fact its better running than when I'm just sitting about," he said.

Con was the oldest runner in the event. That he also ran with a dislocated shoulder makes him one amazing fellow.

"At first I thought I was a little old to take up running, but I guess it's nice to be fit — to be able to enjoy your old age," he said.

An ex-baker, father of six, grandfather of 12 and soon to become a great grandfather, Con runs about 80km a week.

"I stepped that up to 110km leading up to the marathon," he said.

"Last year I ran it in 4:05, my worst time. Last week I paced myself better."
