An ideal day except for the freshening northerly winds towards the end of the run. Temperature was perfect. Did not rain until well after the presentations and after everyone had finished.

Race Director's Report

This year's race was held in ideal conditions along our wonderfully scenic Torrens Valley course, which Steve Moneghetti chose as one of his top ten running trails in Australia, and afterwards enjoyed goody bags, marathon medallions, massages and the carnival atmosphere in Elder Park. The sounds of the jazz band made for a wonderful finish area atmosphere that was enjoyed by finishers and spectators alike.

This year's competitors include four visitors from Japan, two from the U.K., three from the United States, one from Canada, and Dave Corrie who completed his 145th marathon, 129 of which have been in South Africa. The men's marathon looked like a match race between last year's winner, Andrew Burns, and Brendan Sharp, who both predicted times of about 2.30, and so it proved to be, with Brendan breaking away early to win in 2.32.20, and Andrew running 2.34.52, a good effort after running the Gold Coast three weeks earlier. Third was Japanese runner Michihito Murio in 2.41.03. Jeanette Mase won the women's marathon in 3.04.19, with Lisa Wright second in 3.18.31, again great efforts after being part of SA's victorious Gold Coast State Team three weeks before. Their Gold Coast team-mate Leah Wright ran third in the women's half marathon in 1.32.25, coming in behind Susan Peter who won with 1.24.20 and Merran Finnis (1.30.57). Mark Howard dominated the half marathon field to win in 1.12.02, followed by Nigel Pietsch (1.18.38) and Terry Ellis (1.19.08). In the 12 km event Paul Clarken won in 41.53, with Kym Morgan second in 44.32, and Simon Little third in 44.40. Cynthia Kasehagen won the women's 12 km in 48.34, with Melinda McCullough second in 49.09 and Christine Lubke third in 53.50. Mercedes College won the inaugural Half Marathon Schools Relay in 1.25.04, closely followed by their second team in 1.28.45. All seven runners who had competed in all Adelaide's previous eighteen Festival City Marathons made it 18 this year, with ex state premier John Bannon leading the bunch with 3.06.53, and Ross Martin deciding to try walking for variety. The oldest marathoner was Victoria's Ken Matchett, who completed his 97th Marathon in 4.38.49. Unsurprisingly an age group prize will be in the post! Club Stalwart Noel Heinrich (4.48.23) won the Marathon walk, followed by Malcom Withers (4.58.51) and Wayne Russell (5.12.54). The Half Marathon walk was dominated by newcomer Tracey Sinkinson, who was first in 2.09.29, followed by Sandy Roffey (2.36.52) and Helen Robinson (2.41.00). Tracey's mother was to make it a family affair, winning her age category. Stan Choimes was first male in 2.24.13, ahead of Barry McDermott (2.27.06) and Warren Scarman (2.27.08). The 12 km walk was a close affair, with Tyson Davey (1.19.24), just edging out Wayne Jones (1.19.57). Tom Barry (1.28.29, and at 77 our oldest competitor overall) was third. Bianca Davey (1.12.16) was first woman, with Rhonda Whyatt second in 1.24.40 and Deb Himsworth third in 1.27.15. Great efforts!

Our congratulations to all who took part. We would like to thank all sponsors, and especially Living Health whose banners promoted self care and whose tents gave us some shade; Cathay Pacific, who will be flying two people to London, one as a lucky random draw winner and one to run the London Marathon in recognition of muscle team fund raising for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Once again we raised several thousand dollars for MDA. The water from Piccadilly Springs was especially appreciated in the warm weather, the fruit from Adelaide Fresh Fruiters made for fine post race refreshment, and long term sponsor Joggers World were there with their usual great display. We were a community event, and the work of our 97 club and friend volunteers, the SA Police, St Johns, Sports Medicine Australia, Girl Guides (water stations) and many other groups made it both possible and wonderful. See you next year.

Piet Crosby,
Race Director.
